Undergraduate Scholarship Program Application

Franklin University offers and administers the following undergraduate scholarships to Franklin students. Please view the attached individual scholarship descriptions and the criteria for each scholarship. After reviewing the scholarship descriptions, please check the boxes below for all scholarships for which you are applying. Use black or blue pen to complete this application. If a scholarship includes a financial need requirement, a Student Aid Report (the results of the 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid) must be on file in the Financial Aid Office.

Important: Students may only receive one Franklin University scholarship per trimester. Students currently receiving a Franklin scholarship are not eligible to apply for the Undergraduate Scholars Program until after the award period has expired. Franklin University employees, their spouses, and/or dependents are not eligible to apply if they are currently receiving tuition benefits. The majority of undergraduate scholarship awards are for tuition and fees only. Awards will be applied toward tuition beginning with the first trimester for which this application is submitted.

YOU ONLY HAVE TO COMPLETE ONE ESSAY. INDIVIDUAL ESSAYS ARE NOT REQUIRED FOR EACH SCHOLARSHIP.
