Applicants in or pursuing F-1 immigration status must have sufficient funds to cover all expenses during the entire period of anticipated study. The applicant’s sponsor(s) must sign this form assuming responsibility for the applicant’s financial support and provide financial documents showing access to funds equal or greater to one year’s tuition and expenses. Applicants applying for an F-1 visa at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate or requesting a change to F-1 status from within the U.S. should submit financial documents to Franklin University and retain official financial documents for the visa interview or change of status application.

Estimated Tuition and Expenses Per Year
Undergraduate Programs $34,265.00
Undergraduate Technology Programs (Computer Science, Information Technology, Information Security, Web Development) $35,487.00
Graduate Programs $32,201.00
Graduate Technology Programs (Computer Science) $33,161.00

Tuition and expenses estimate based on average number of credits taken to fulfill full-time enrollment requirement for two trimesters multiplied by tuition rate for each program and includes mandatory health insurance, room, board, books, supplies and personal expenses. Add $12,794.00 for a dependent spouse; add $7,012.00 per dependent child younger than 18 years old.

I certify that I have or will have sufficient funds to cover all expenses during the entire period of anticipated study. I understand that F-1 students have limited work options in the United States and should expect to pay tuition and expenses without working in the U.S. I, also, understand that tuition and fees are subject to change.
