Find out Where Your Future is Going By Attending Franklin University's Accounting and Finance Networking and Open House Event

Columbus, Ohio – Franklin University, a leading educator of working adults in central Ohio, will host three evenings designed to give current and potential students a chance to network and learn about the opportunities that exist in the fields of accounting and finance, as well as how attending Franklin can prepare you for success.

The three night event will include representatives from the following organizations discussing employment opportunities as well as what is needed to succeed in the accounting and finance professions:

Society of CPAs (OSCPA)	Information Systems Audit & Control Association (ISACA)
Institute of Management Accountants (IMA)	American Institute of CPAs (AICPA)
Association of Government Accountants (AGA)	Financial Planning Association
Certified Financial Planners	Franklin University Vantage MBA ® Program
Columbus Association of Tax Professionals (CATP)	Franklin University Tutoring Services
American Society of Women Accountants (ASWA)	Franklin University Library Services
National Association of Black Accountants (NABA)	Franklin University Financial Aid Office
Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA)	Franklin University Student Services
Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE)

Franklin's Accounting Program provides a strong foundation for your success in today's business world. Franklin's distinctive major allows you to focus on readiness for professional certifications, including the Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Develop a strong grasp of accounting principles, incorporating research and communication in the workplace. Adhere to a strong code of accounting ethics and professional responsibility.

Franklin's Financial Management Program will help you acquire the skills necessary to develop and implement appropriate financing and investment strategies for business or personal financial planning. Franklin's Program is offered in two concentrations that allow you to tailor your education to meet your career goals. Choose from either a Financial Management concentration that will qualify you for positions in corporate level financing; or from the Financial Planning concentration which allows you to provide sound financial planning for individuals.
