Education:

Bachelor of Arts in Communications

Professional Affiliations:

Ohio Association for College Admission Counseling (OACAC)

National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC)

American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO)

National Academic Advising Association (NACADA)

Hobbies:

Running a non-profit arts organization, relaxing with my dachshund, reading, acting, walking, and spending time with friends.

Personal Statement:

I am passionate about helping others to have the same great, life-changing experience with their education that I had. I hope to aid them in making it the best it can be by providing helpful, efficient, and quality service.

According to a recent student survey, 95% of Franklin students say the service we provide them meets or exceeds their expectations!

Steps for Success:

- Contact your SSA to develop a Chronological Degree Plan.
- Register early for classes to ensure your choice of time and location. Many classes close early to maintain an average class size of 20 students.
- Study and writing assistance is available free through the Student Learning Center (SLC).
- Read Connections, the student newsletter, posted on our Web site at www.franklin.edu/go/connections.
- Time management will be a crucial part of your success as a student. Budget your time wisely.
- The Franklin University Nationwide Library allows students access to a wealth of information and services through www.franklin.edu/go/library.
