Established in 1902, Franklin University is central Ohio's leading educator of working professionals and one of the largest private universities in the state. As a student-centered institution and innovator of online education, the University offers applied majors at the undergraduate and graduate levels, enabling adult learners to achieve their educational and professional goals. Over 2,000 students graduate from Franklin each year and the University's 50,000 alumni can be found worldwide – serving the communities in which they live and work.

Our students come to us from all walks of life, across the country and around the world. Many of them take classes at our Main Campus in downtown Columbus, while also taking advantage of online course options. Our online degrees are convenient and affordable, with courses that provide the ultimate flexibility to all our students.

To create greater educational opportunity for even more students, Franklin partners with community and technical colleges across the nation to enable transfer students to complete their bachelor's degrees through our Community College Alliance (CCA) program. The University defines itself as a world leader in higher education by partnering with educational institutions in Europe, Asia, Central America and the Middle East.

In addition, Franklin's distance education reaches active-duty soldiers across the globe through the ArmyIgnitED program, providing eligible enlisted soldiers the opportunity to earn bachelor's degrees while serving our country. Franklin also has a formal partnership with the Army National Guard and offers a tuition discount to military family members.

Franklin faculty and staff work collaboratively to ensure academic quality, provide access to educational opportunities, adapt to the needs of adult students, and respond appropriately to changes in society, professions, and the global business community. Ultimately, their dedication helps open doors to increased opportunity for our graduates today – and well into the future.

As a nonprofit, private university, Franklin is supported by tuition and the generous contributions of alumni, friends and the greater Columbus community. Franklin University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

Franklin University The University of Opportunity

Franklin University is a student-centered, nonprofit, independent institution.

Franklin University provides high quality, relevant education enabling the broadest possible community of learners to achieve their goals and enrich the world.

• GRADUATING STUDENT SPEAKER •

Jamie Lorraine Welsh is a senior organizational development consultant at Nationwide Children's Hospital, where she partners with leaders and teams to strengthen culture, leadership and collaboration across a complex healthcare environment. With more than 25 years of professional experience, she specializes in leadership development, team effectiveness and organizational engagement. Jamie is known for seeing the potential in every person she serves and approaching her work with deep compassion and a genuine commitment to helping others succeed. She holds a bachelor's degree from Franklin and today is receiving her master's in business psychology.

• OUTSTANDING GRADUATION HONOREES •

An Outstanding Graduation Honoree is a distinguished student who has been handpicked by a faculty member for their exceptional performance in academics. This accolade highlights their unwavering commitment, relentless pursuit of knowledge and unrivaled work ethic. The nominee has consistently exhibited a remarkable level of intellectual curiosity and critical thinking prowess, going above and beyond to demonstrate learning mastery and scholarship in their field of study. Through this recognition, the student emerges as a role model for their peers and an inspiration for all aspiring scholars.

It is our honor to highlight the following honorees. Each one has recorded a special video message that can be accessed at franklin.edu/commencement.

Michael Carson is a project manager specializing in new product implementation for Reynolds and Reynolds, a global leader in dealership management systems. He supports the release and implementation of digital products for retail operations, customer communication platforms and enterprise process automation. With knowledge gained at Franklin through his B.S. Management + Leadership, he applies structured problem-solving and cross-departmental collaboration to advance project objectives. His work emphasizes strategic execution, stakeholder communication and team coordination to deliver software solutions that support customers worldwide.

Master of Public Administration graduate Dawn Turnage is the assistant director of Youth Development for the Columbus Recreation and Parks Department, where she leads initiatives focused on youth programming, workforce development, violence intervention and community engagement. With nearly three decades of cross-sector experience in social services, criminal justice and municipal government, she previously served the city of Youngstown, Ohio, as director of Parks and Recreation and as an elected official on the Youngstown City School Board. A stroke survivor and advocate with the American Heart Association, Dawn is committed to advancing public service and expanding equitable opportunities for youth, families and communities.

Lan Montler is an experienced analytics and marketing strategist with a career spanning financial services, insurance and academia. Lan leads data-driven initiatives in customer insights, marketing measurement and business analytics, building on previous roles at Nationwide and JPMorgan Chase. As she completes her Doctor of Business Administration, focused on corporate strategy and employee well-being, she draws on deep expertise in qualitative and quantitative methodologies to solve business problems and inform strategic decisions. By integrating research on mass media, consumer behavior, communication processes and corporate strategies with applied analytics, her background blends scholarly rigor with practical impact.

The Robert L. Bailey Teaching Excellence Award is bestowed upon one undergraduate and one graduate faculty member each trimester. The award recognizes faculty who have challenged students intellectually and guided them in finding the significance of the course content as it relates to them both personally and professionally.

Each trimester, high-performing graduate and undergraduate Franklin University faculty are nominated and then voted on by the students, with those receiving the most votes at each level being awarded this honor. The awards are funded through an endowment established by State Auto Insurance Companies in recognition of Robert L. Bailey, who served State Auto for 28 years in various positions, including president, CEO and chairman, until his retirement in 2000. Bailey is also a past chair and a trustee emeritus of Franklin University's Board of Trustees.

Congratulations to this trimester's recipients: Bryan Buoni, undergraduate faculty, and Dr. Gayle DeGennaro, graduate faculty.

Each of the Bailey Award winners has recorded a special video message that can be accessed at franklin.edu/commencement.

An instructor at Franklin for 19 years, Bryan Buoni currently teaches psychology courses and is an advocate for the transformative power of education and the critical role of psychology in modern organizational success. Bryan's teaching style is defined by a commitment to mentoring adult learners and integrating real-world behavioral insights into the curriculum. By leveraging his background in competency-based hiring and conflict resolution, he strives to provide students with a practical framework for understanding human dynamics in professional settings. From his current role as the executive director of human resources for Dublin City Schools, as well as previous HR leadership experience in K-12 education, Bryan brings a wealth of practical expertise to his students.

Dr. Gayle DeGennaro chairs Franklin's undergraduate information systems program. She teaches graduate courses in database management, systems analysis and design, and serves as a faculty advisor for Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) students. Her teaching philosophy emphasizes collaborative learning and helping students develop confidence in working with data. In her 29 years at Franklin, Dr. DeGennaro has worked in and collaborated with nearly every department, an experience that informs her teaching through a strong understanding of how business operations and technology work together. She has spent much of her professional career in information technology, managing enterprise data systems, business software and systems integrations. Dr. DeGennaro holds an MBA from Capital University and a DBA from Franklin and is currently completing a master's degree in analytics.

The Franklin University Alumni Awards were created to recognize the many achievements of Franklin University alumni, both professionally and personally. The awards, open to all alumni, distinguish accomplishments in three categories: professional excellence, social impact and alumnus of the year.

One of the three awards is announced at each of the University's Commencement ceremonies, on a rotating basis. The Franklin University Alumni Advisory Council considers nominations and applications and makes its recommendations to the University's president for approval.

Today, we honor Dr. Angela Brake with the Alumni Award for Social Impact.

Dr. Angela Brake is a purpose-driven leader who believes meaningful impact happens where strategy, service and community intersect. Her career spans corporate, education and nonprofit sectors – each chapter shaping her ability to build systems, cultivate leaders, and move missions forward with intention and heart.

Angela, who earned her Doctor of Professional Studies in Instructional Design Leadership from Franklin, has led organizational and workforce initiatives at Goodyear and Akron Public Schools, strengthening training, operations and engagement across diverse teams. Her leadership foundation was further shaped at Emmanuel Christian Academy, where she learned the power of culture-building, servant leadership and doing meaningful work with limited resources and unlimited vision.

As the director of operations for Limitless Ambition, Angela has championed leadership development, mentoring and community-building, helping individuals and organizations translate potential into action. Her work with Girl Scouts of Northeast Ohio reflects her commitment to developing future leaders and creating equitable pathways for girls to grow in confidence, skills and courage.

Angela's commitment to community leadership extends deeply into board service and governance. She currently serves on and supports boards for the Zonta Club of Akron, Barberton and Cuyahoga Falls; the Women's Endowment Fund; Hope and Healing Survivor Resource Center; LITE; Project Grad; and the Goodyear Heights Community Development Committee. Through this work, she contributes strategic insight, fundraising leadership and mission stewardship to organizations advancing equity, education, safety and community revitalization.

• ACADEMIC REGALIA •

Identification of the hood and robe as academic apparel is believed to have originated at the English universities of Oxford and Cambridge during the 13th and 14th centuries. The hoods are thought to be carried over from the times when the monks who operated universities wore them to protect their shaved heads in winter. The robe also may have been necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings frequented by medieval scholars.

Use of the academic robe came to the United States in the 18th century. In 1895, a conference of various university officials adopted a universal code of design and color, which has undergone numerous revisions over the years.

Robe styles vary for the bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees. The width of sleeve borders and length of the hood increases with each advanced degree. The color of the velvet border on the hood indicates the type of advanced degree achieved.

• UNDERGRADUATE HONOR CORDS •

Gold signifies summa cum laude, 3.90 or higher cumulative GPA.

White signifies magna cum laude, 3.70-3.89 cumulative GPA.

Red signifies cum laude, 3.50-3.69 cumulative GPA.

To qualify for these honors, students must complete a minimum of 30 cumulative semester hours in baccalaureate coursework or 20 semester hours in associate coursework at Franklin University.

• CANDIDATES •

Please note: This program is not an official graduation list. The University's final record of the conferral of degrees is the student's official academic transcript, which is kept by the Office of the Registrar, 201 S. Grant Ave., Columbus, Ohio, 43215.

• ALUMNI GREETINGS •

Congratulations to the Spring 2026 graduates of Franklin University! The Office of Community Relations welcomes you to the ranks of Franklin alumni who are making a positive impact on communities around the world.

We want today to be the start of a long and fruitful relationship between you and your alma mater, so we hope you will stay connected to Franklin online (franklin.edu/alumni). You will be able to learn about Franklin events, access our new alumni podcasts, give back to the university and more.

This past week, you received an email about becoming involved and staying in touch. You can help us serve you better by letting us know about career changes and promotions, updates to your contact information, and other major events in your life. That way, you'll never miss an update and we can share your good news with your friends and classmates.

To provide the Office of Community Relations with any changes, call us at 614.947.6062, email us at alumni@franklin.edu, or visit our online community at franklin.edu/alumni. And don't forget to visit us on Facebook and LinkedIn!

Again, congratulations on earning your degree. We're proud to have you as part of Franklin University's alumni community and we look forward to your active participation in the years ahead.

• THE ALUMNI PIN •

As a graduate, you received your own Franklin University Alumni Pin at Commencement. If you meet a fellow Franklin graduate who doesn't have a pin, you're invited to pass yours along to promote a sense of connection within our alumni family.

After you've given your pin to another Franklin graduate, just visit the Benefits & Services page at franklin.edu/alumni, click on the request pin link and request a replacement. If you have not received a pin, please visit franklin.edu/alumni or call the Office of Community Relations at 614.947.6062 and we will be happy to send you one.

Congratulations, Graduates!

Reward yourself – or commemorate this special achievement for the new Franklin grad in your life with official merchandise from the Franklin University Online Spirit Store. Your purchase of shirts, sweaters, jackets, hats and other Franklin alumni gear not only keeps today's celebration going for one grad, but it opens the door for others, as a portion of each sale goes toward funding scholarships for Franklin students.
