

Federal law requires colleges to make available information regarding the types of graduate and professional education in which graduates of the institution's four-year degree programs enroll. The information below was compiled through student surveys and information available from the National Student Clearinghouse for students who graduated from Franklin University undergraduate programs in spring and fall of 2023.

Spring 2023 Graduates

- Many graduates chose to continue their education at Franklin University

Sample of majors reported:

Accounting	Computer Science
Business Administration	Health Informatics
Business Psychology	Instructional Design and Learning Technology
Criminal Justice Administration	Public Administration

- Other institutions where Franklin University graduates enrolled in graduate/professional education

John Carroll University	The Ohio State University
Ohio Northern University	San Jose State University
Boston University	Michigan State University

Sample of majors reported:

Law	Software Engineering
Clinical Mental Health Counseling	Health Services Management & Policy
MBA	Psychology

Fall 2023 Graduates

- Many graduates chose to continue their education at Franklin University

Sample of majors reported:

Business Administration	Data Analytics
Business Analytics	Healthcare Administration
Computer Science	Human Resource Management
Cybersecurity	Information Technology

- Other institutions where Franklin University graduates enrolled in graduate/professional education

Northern Kentucky University	American University
Pennsylvania State University	University of Phoenix
Eastern University	University of North Carolina - Wilmington

Sample of majors reported:

Data Science	Educational Leadership
Organizational Management	Accounting
MBA	Strategic Communications