2016 - 2017

Academic Program Scholarship Terms and Conditions

By submitting this application for Franklin's Academic Program Scholarship, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Scholarship recipients must meet the scholarship criteria outlined on the Academic Scholarship Application for consideration.
2. Scholarship recipients must begin classes in the intended trimester as specified on the Franklin Admission Application. Recipients who do not enroll and begin classes in the intended trimester will have their award removed and will need to reapply for available scholarship offerings at the time of actual enrollment.
3. Scholarship awards will be automatically renewed for up to 6 consecutive trimesters, pending that the recipient maintains at least a 3.0 Franklin University cumulative GPA, remains in good academic standing and is making continuous progress toward an eligible academic program listed on the Academic Program Scholarship Application. Scholarship recipients must be enrolled in and complete a minimum of 6 credit hours at Franklin University each trimester of consecutive enrollment.
4. Scholarship recipients must adhere to all Franklin University rules/policies (i.e. Academic Integrity, Student Code of Conduct). Information can be found here: <http://franklin.edu/conduct>.
5. The Academic Program Scholarship may not be combined with other Franklin University discounts or scholarships. Applicants can utilize federal and state financial aid, if eligible. To apply for federal and state financial aid, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at <https://fafsa.ed.gov> and enter Franklin University's school code 003046.
6. The Academic Program Scholarship is non-refundable, which means this award can be used toward tuition and book expenses only and excess funds will not be refunded to the recipient. Recipients are responsible for all other educational expenses not covered by this award.
7. Scholarship recipients are expected to follow the terms and conditions outlined herein to remain in good standing as an Academic Program Scholarship recipient. Failure to comply with these criteria may result in the loss of the scholarship.
